

Career Page Api Implementation Story Boarding

Admin:

- Admin Logs into the system.
- They are shown a screen with links to creating a new job or shortlisting a candidate that has applied for the job.
- If they click on create new job they will be taken to a page where they can create a new job.
- If they click on the shortlist a candidate, The admin is shown all the candidates that have applied for the jobs and the admin is able to shortlist/ reject/ talent pool them.
- Admin can also get all/ shortlisted/ rejected/ talent pooled/ in-progress candidates.
- Admin can also get all the job counts and jobs for a certain candidate.
- Admin can also get the pdf file containing all the records of candidates by status.
- Admin can also hide the status of candidate from the said candidate.

User:

- User Signs Up on the website they are sent an email confirmation to verify their email.
- Once they verify their email they can log in to the website.

- Where they are shown the jobs available and the apply for the job option.
- If they click on apply, they are taken to a page where they will fill out their credentials and apply for the job.
- User will get their status for all the jobs they have applied for unless they are hidden by the admin, in which case they will be shown status of In-Progress.